

Please keep our "Do not call" policy in effect. There is so little we can do to protect our privacy. It would be a giant step backward to allow our homes to be invaded. As it is, I have found that in recent weeks, some business are ignoring the lists and making "anonymous" telemarketing calls. I have even found them to be rude when I remind them we are not to be called. Please save our privacy.
Thank you.